

News from the Thomas F. Holgate Library

January 2011 Vol. 2, Is. 5

Welcome Back Bennett College Family from the Holgate Library!

New Titles in Social Work

The library's new social work titles in support of the Social Work Program's reaccreditation efforts are on display by the Circulation Desk!

Take the Library's Extended Hour Survey: Jan 10-21

Did it make a difference for you? The Holgate Library needs your feedback on the library's 24/7 extended hours during the fall final exam period. How we plan for future library extended hours could be informed by your input. Look for a link to the survey in BelleNet or take the survey at the Circulation Desk starting January 10th.

Celebrate the Scholarly Work of Dr. Johnson Adefila!

Yes, celebrate the research and writing of Dr. Adefila, historian and longstanding Bennett College professor. Visit the library's Faculty Publications display to read a biography of Dr. Adefila, learn about his research interests.

January Book Display: Dr. Martin Luther King

Celebrate the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, drum major for justice. Check out the library's display of books by and about Dr. King at the Circulation Desk.

January Drop-In Workshops: Graduate School Test Preparation

This January, the Holgate Library is offering two drop-in workshops to help you register and prepare for graduate and professional school entrance exams. Whether you need to take the ASVAB, GRE, LSAT, GMAT, or MCAT; whether you have two years or two weeks to prepare; these sessions will provide you with valuable advice and preparation resources to help you get ready. Everyone is welcome to attend!

Meet at the Reference Desk on the Main Floor of the Library
Monday, Jan. 24th & Wednesday, Jan. 26th
4:15 - 5:00pm

Introducing the Library's New Online Catalog!

The Holgate Library is proud to introduce its new online catalog, available on the library's homepage and online subject guides. The catalog is now cleaner and user-friendly than ever! Ask any librarian for help using this new tool!

